THE CHILDREN’S ART CENTRE

Amidst the clatter and rumble of Boston's busy South End is the Children's Art Centre. Here, for more than 50 years, boys and girls from this area—and all over Greater Boston—have found a place where they have freedom to constructively spend their leisure time and find enthusiastic recognition for their talents and efforts. The Children's Art Centre is more than just an art gallery—it's a studio-workshop where children receive instruction in all forms of art—from highly creative instructors.

An internationally recognized fine arts museum, the Children's Art Centre has on exhibit at all times selected works by professional artists.
