Hello, Beantowners!

Feels like another cold wave has invaded Boston.

The Professional Dressmakers and Designers Guild, in its sixth year, will present fashions in miniature at its semi-formal, Friday March 8, at 8:30 p.m., in the Surrey Room of the Hotel Touraine, 62 Boylston street, Boston. You will dance to the strains of Stanley Harris and his orchestra. The highlight of the evening will be the select group of prominent and gracious ladies who will stroll down the ramp beautifully gowned members of the Guild. The organization benefiting from the affair will be the League of Women for Community Service, Inc. Tickets may be purchased from each member at $2.50 each. Publicity chairman is Vera Leake; co-chairman, Lydia McLean and ticket chairman, Edna Morgan.

Atty. Rowena Taylor of Cambridge recently went to Charleston, South Carolina, on the sad mission of burying her aunt.

Captain Gordon Bourne of Cambridge has left for overseas duty in Korea after a tour of duty in Oklahoma. His family will reside in Cambridge during his absence.

The Richard Greene's former home at 103 Green st., Brockton, Mass. The public is cordially invited to inspect the premises on Sunday, January 27, from 1 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.

Miss Fannie Wood, who recently celebrated her seventy-fifth birthday at the Blessed Sacrament on Vernon st., Roxbury, where she has been associated for over fifty years, was given a surprise party by the Center members of the Blessed Sacrament. She was presented with a purse of money by her many friends.

The Girl Scouts of St. Richard's Church, under the leadership of their leader, Miss Grace Carter, held a very successful home-made cake sale.

A gala Card Party for the benefit of the Polio Fund by the Jack & Jill Club on Friday, February 8, at Freedom House, Crawford st., Roxbury. All kinds of games will be played, including bridge, canasta, and whist with prizes galore.

The regular Coffee Hour will be at Freedom House on Tuesday morning, February 5. Speaker for the morning will be Attorney Gerald Berlin, who will speak on "The Housing Act to Eliminate Discrimination in Publicly Assisted Housing."

On February 17 Freedom House will hold its annual International Tea. The highlight of the tea will be Africa. More about it later.

Until next week—send your news to—Doris E. Roosa, 104 Chilton street, Cambridge.

(KIrklan 7-3706)